

LUMBER BARONS

Bio:

West coast stoner jazz with an edge. This is the jumping off point for the lumber baron's music – an original blend of garage psych funk, disco, soul jazz, afrobeat and krautrock – written and played by veteran musicians who emerged from Vancouver's alternative music scene. Formed in late 2016, the band has reached into the vault and brought forward a unique mix of influences, elevated by the skill and experience of the individual musicians.

Musicians:

Finn Manniche – Guitar

Chris Macleod – Organ, ARP Synthesizer

Tim Smythe – Electric Bass

Ross Hales – Drums
